OUR FINANCIAL/ INSURANCE POLICY:

It is your responsibility to know your insurance plan and your benefits. There are too many insurance plans for us to know each one. You may request any work be preauthorized with your insurance company for a better estimate. We will bill your insurance company directly if you have provided us with all the necessary information to do so. Please understand the agreement of the insurance carrier to pay for dental care is a contract between you, your employer, and the carrier. There may be limitations and exclusions to coverage. The patient portion is set by the insurance company. It is ultimately your responsibility to see that your bill is paid in full.

All co-pays and deductibles are due the day of treatment. If your deductible has not been met at the time of your appointment we will collect a portion.

INHERENT RISKS OF DENTISTRY

All procedures carry some risk. This may include, but is not limited to, the need for additional procedures such as redoing previous work, root canals, crowns, possible loss of a tooth or implant, infection, pain, numbness, and swelling. Damage may also occur to adjacent teeth, fillings, or tissues. Please let us know if you've had any allergic reactions or adverse reactions in the past. No dentistry will last forever, and you should expect to replace your dentures, fillings, crowns, and even implants, at some point. Please ask your doctor if you have any questions. We are here to help you understand exactly what is being done, why it is recommended, and what the outcomes may be.
